Andrew Raich (Fayetteville, USA).

Global L^q Gevrey Functions and Applications

I will start with an innocuous question - When does the Fourier transform of a function have exponential decay? From there, I will build global L^q-Gevrey functions and present examples (in PDEs), counterexamples, limits of the Fourier transform, and alternative strategies that avoid the Fourier transform.