Irina Mitrea (Philadelphia, USA).

Harmonic Analysis on Uniformly Rectifiable Sets and Applications

In this talk I will discuss recent developments at the interface between Harmonic Analysis and Geometric Measure Theory (Calderón-Zygmund theory on Uniformly Rectifiable sets, a sharp divergence theorem with non-tangential boundary traces, Fatou-type theorems, etc.) and present their impact on problems which make systematic use of singular integral operators.